

Academic Writing

15. Mai 2020, 10:00–17:15 Uhr

Content

The advancement of an academic career usually involves submitting papers in English. This course, led by a native speaker, is aimed at post graduates who intend to hand in papers for publications or conferences in English.

Success is not only a matter of good translation skills. There are stylistic differences when presenting ideas in English, particularly in written form. The seminar will help you to recognize some of the basic differences and to get your papers accepted. It is held entirely in English.

Topics

- basic differences to publication in German
- Choice of words
- Formal requirements

Methods

- Theoretical input
- Discussions
- Looking at academic texts
- Reviewing abstracts, extracts of texts

Trainer

Dr. Sonja Price is a native speaker. She works as a lecturer and coach as well as a scientific assistant at the Friedrich Schiller University Jena. She teaches all aspects of writing from Academic to Creative Writing and is a published novelist.

Online Registration: Please register until 6 May 2020 via www.htwk-leipzig.de/gradz